FRAGMENTS OF ELEGANCE DARIA GAMULINA

SOLO SHOW - CARPENTERS WORKSHOP - MARCH 2025

Whitewall Projects is proud to present "Fragments of Elegance", a solo exhibition by artist Dara Gamulina at Carpenters Workshop. This marks a new chapter in Whitewall's commitment to bridging art, design, and contemporary culture through curated physical experiences. "Fragments of Elegance" explores Gamulina's delicate yet powerful visual language, where materiality and form intersect to create poetic compositions. Through this collaboration with Carpenters Workshop, Whitewall Projects continues its mission of offering a dynamic platform for both emerging and established artists, bringing its editorial vision to life in an immersive setting.

The solo show (open March 11–23, 2025), curated by Laurent Moisi and Michael Klug
“Fragments of Elegance” features lighting design in partnership with FLOS.

Daria Gamulina (b. 1985)

Daria Gamulina

Daria Gamulina is an artist whose practice delves into the delicate interplay between memory, materiality, and emotion. Rooted in a deep sensitivity to her surroundings, her work explores the impermanence of beauty and the fragmented nature of perception. Through layered compositions and an intuitive approach to form, Gamulina captures fleeting moments of elegance—where light, texture, and movement converge in poetic harmony. Her artistic process is a meditation on time, drawing from both personal and collective histories to create pieces that feel at once intimate and universal.
